Apply for NSFAS funding and make your 2020 academic journey comfortable

The South African Government is aware most households struggle to pay the hefty academic costs for their kids to complete their desired qualifications. This is why the National Student Financial Aid scheme (NSFAS) is tasked with ensuring that no deserving student is barred from achieving their dreams due to their poor financial background. NSFAS administers funding for potential professionals from poor and working-class families who can't afford study fees on behalf of the Department of Higher Education, Science and Technology.

WHO QUALIFIES FOR THE NSFAS FUNDING?

- Any South African citizen who is currently studying or plans on studying at a public university or TVET college.
- The combined household income of the applicant who has registered at a public institution from 2018 or plans to register in 2020 for the first time must not exceed R350 000 per annum
- The combined household income of an applicant who has registered prior to 2018 must not exceed R122 000 per annum
- The combined household income of persons with disabilities must not exceed R600 000 per annum

Who should not apply?

- Non-South African citizens
- Students that have completed a previous university qualification, unless you are applying for an approved funded Post-graduate qualification
- Students who have already applied, qualified and received funding for 2019. They are automatically funded for the duration of their studies, provided they pass their modules and meet the academic requirements
